Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brown:

The Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department has high expectations for all of its officers. We train our officers not just to meet minimum standards, but to have our department at the forefront when it comes to important issues like de-escalating conflict and interacting with our community members. To the extent Officer Perkins failed to live up to our high expectations on October 14, 2016, I sincerely apologize on the department's behalf for this unfortunate situation. I assure you we continually work with all our officers to make sure that they meet our high expectations for them.

On behalf of IMPD,

Cpt. David Robinson
